CO-ORDINATOR CATCH UP

Hi Neighbours

I am writing to you from the sunny spot between the broccoli and the leeks, beside the mural and under the shade of the lime tree. YES, Neighbourhood House has become a Market Garden since last time I wrote to you! We had the best young people from Pyramid Hill College here shifting dirt and gravel, and planting out the garden beds last Thursday afternoon. They were joined on the end of the shovel by Lizzie, Paul, Tania and Luke. Leanne and Rhonda have three parts finished our beautiful veggie filled mural.

We are over half way with our garden. Do you want to know what is next? We have a couple of trees to plant, another wicking bed to install, a table and chairs to move into place beside the mural and some companion flowers to plant. All this will lead to an outdoor space in a sunny-sun-trap for meetings, lunches and groups to be held. It will also allow people to use our internet even while we are not open, while sitting and relaxing in our garden. We will also be growing FOOD so, there's that awesome benefit to our town too.

We have been talking about doing a plant and produce swap one afternoon. What do you think of that idea? Let's trial it!

First Thursday of September will be our inaugural Plant and Produce Swap! Teags and I just made that one up on the spot. Bring your cuttings, clippings, poo and produce. Leave with stuff that belongs to other people! Fun.

Ok team the other big thing on our radar at the moment is the gorgeous Marist Brass Band coming to play next week. What a gift. Not only have they prepared a concert for us at 2pm, they are inviting every interested person to come along and learn about the instruments from 12-1pm. This would be especially fantastic for musically minded young people to learn about all the brassy instruments they may not know exist! Our local connection to Marist Brass is our St Pat's Principal John O'Connor. A gold coin or two will get you a great afternoon at our Memorial Hall. Time's up for the column, I hope to see you buzzing around our garden soon!

Buzz buzz, Kim

GMW wraps up Winter Works program

With the new irrigation season under way, Goulburn-Murray Water has brought its 2023 Winter Works program to a close. The program occurs over the three-month irrigation off-season, allowing GMW to dewater channels and undertake various maintenance and capital works projects. GMW Infrastructure Delivery Services general manager Warren Jose said the 2023 Winter Works program had been highly productive. "It's been a fantastic effort from everyone involved," he said. "During the program, we have had about 60 GMW staff and 40 contractors out in the field on any given day. "Despite the often challenging weather, they have understood the importance of the works and completed a significant amount in just three short months."

These works included:

- replacing 39 regulators
- treating 260km of channel for aquatic weeds
- desilting 26km of channels
- major refurbishment of 31km of channel
- replacing or repairing 11 structures (ie. bridges and culverts)
- remodelling 10 channels.

The works were completed ahead of the start of the 2023/24 irrigation season on Tuesday 15 August allowing time for the Water Planning team to refill channels before customers begin placing orders. "We know there are a lot of customers who have to plan around the irrigation off-season to ensure they still have access to water when channels are drained," Mr Jose said. "We are grateful for their flexibility and understanding during this time, as it has helped us improve the delivery system in ways that will benefit customers for years to come."

Indonesian Activities

Last Thursday the students from St. Pat's walked up to Pyramid Hill College to participate in a range of activities provided by the Indonesian exchange students. Our learners had a fantastic time making their origami boats and purses, learning some dances and enjoying a number of fun games. The Indonesian exchange students were excellent in the way they explained the activities and encouraged everyone to be involved. There were lots of smiles and tons of laughter. A big thank-you to Kelly and Pyramid Hill College for the invitation to be part of such a fun day.

What a game to finish off the season before finals! The girls played a very tight game against Newbridge and fought hard all game. Key defenders Simone, Bec and Megan caused many much-needed turnovers for the doggies. Mid court players and goalers worked well together. After being down at 3 quarter time, the team went out fighting and managed a 3-point win. The girls are ready to come out strong next week in the first weeks of finals!

FOOTY HIGHLIGHTS

Round 18 Pyramid Hill vs Newbridge

The final game of the home-and-away season saw the Seniors and Reserves travel to Newbridge, and the Under 18's head to Calivil. The Under 18's again turned on a very positive display, and although going down by six goals, were able to register 14 scoring shots. Again the "Pups" were able to push hard for the duration of the contest and the development of team cohesion and spirit is something they will continue to build on. Harry Goodes (Ant Free Shearing) led the scoring with 5 goals, before heading to Newbridge to "nail" 2 more in the Seniors. Lewis Stubbs finished with 2 goals. Blake Gibson was his energetic self and posted the remaining goal before also heading to Newbridge and helping out the Reserves. Xavier Emmerson (Pyramid Hill Butcher's) continues to develop, and Riley Hutton (Good Sports) was also a very handy contributor.

Toby Fernandez (Club President's Award) is getting better by the week and was prepared to contest the "hard ball". Kobi Manton (Wizartry Signs) also put in four solid quarters, and had support from Jacob Clough-Fidler and Connor McCoy. The PHFNC are very grateful for the support given to our boys by the Calivil and Inglewood trainers; you helped us out on a day when our support staff were 'stretched;' over many kms. Club members, family and supporters will be in full voice when the boys play in the Sunday final this weekend.

With a number of players returning, the Reserves were able to finish the home-and-away season with a comfortable win. Newbridge had their oval in pristine condition and with early sunny conditions and no breeze there would be no excuses. It was a free-flowing affair, interspaced with stoppage lockdowns, but goals kept coming, and 23 in total made for good spectator viewing. The final margin blew out in the second half, but early on the game was an evenly contested arm wrestle, with the Maroons winning the second stanza. Led by Dylan Lovell (Pony Award and a goal), Nick Skinner (3 goals) and Nathan Moon, the Bulldogs went up a gear in the "Premiership Quarter", and a 7-goal buffer had been established at the final change. Ashton Dye (National Hotel) continues to impress and with 5 goals, shared the spoils with Rowan Pollock who slotted through 5 of his own. Tom Walker (Victoria Hotel) won the contested ball and turned in a polished mid-field display, whilst in the back half Darcy Hetherington (Good Sports) was able to again initiate countless forward moves. Matt Moon (BCF Voucher), the back half "General", was strong both overhead and at ground level. The Club will be cheering loudly this weekend when the boys tackle the "Bears".

The Seniors flew from the blocks and a 7-goal opening term set up what was a healthy victory. It was a hotly contested first quarter and the Maroons were prepared to make every possession a hard-earned one. Dylan Collis (3 goals) ensured he covered all of the Newbridge oval and knocked up winning possessions, both at the coalface and also as a running receiver. His was a game that would have inspired the group. Zac Alford (Victoria Hotel and 6 goals) was again everywhere in the forward zone; he owned the fifty-meter arc. From defence Tom McGregor (National Hotel) provided a vital link both as a stopper and a linkman. He was a polished performer who combined well with his onballers and running defenders. Jack Woodward (5 goals) was back to his surging best and his running goals capped off great contested efforts. Others to do well in a good run into this week's finals included Tom Brennan, Lachy Sidebottom and Billy Micevski.

In more great off-field news, the Bulldogs welcomed another future netballer as Greg and Kelly Quinn introduced into the world Kleo Maree Quinn. It was also a memorable day at Newbridge as 100 netball games was notched up by Amber Angel who arrived at the Kennel in 2017. Another reminder to all members and supports of the upcoming home final. Make sure you inform Robert Moon or any Committee member of your capacity to assist on the day. The 2023 Presentation Night is also looming so stay tuned for further information.
