Asking For Trouble

Next week we have an extraordinary, family friendly show coming to Pyramid Hill Memorial Hall!

The company, Asking for Trouble is from Clunes - not so far away - but over the last twelve years they have toured their shows as far as Perth, New Zealand, the Netherlands, UK and even Kerang!

Their performances are highly skilled physical and imaginative theatre with a huge lean toward circus and acrobatics.

All community members are welcome to attend the 2pm performance.

Come out for a great afternoon.

This performance is brought to you by Pyramid Hill Neighbourhood House - and funded through the Loddon Shire Flood Recovery grants program

Coordinator Catch Up

Hi Neighbours!

On Saturday 22nd February we had a great gathering of arty women come together at the Neighbourhood House to participate in a Mosaic Workshop! Some of our participants travelled in from Mincha, Kerang and Quamby. Each of us brought different ideas of what we would like to achieve - and local artist Gwenda Bott, helped us get our ideas from brain to paper to tiles.. We all had the best fun! The results were unique, and we all left the group a little inspired - and a little more in love with mosaics! For most of us, the tiling took a good and concentrated 6 hours to create a 20cm x 30cm panel.

We might try and get another two workshops up this year, with Gwenda. Another beginners group and a more involved project.

Is there something you might like to learn? Come visit me at the Neighbourhood House for a chat!

Fully Funded Workshops March 2025

A half-day alertness workshop that prepares anyone to become a suicide alert helper. Most people with thoughts of suicide don't truly want to die but are struggling with the pain in their lives.

Through their words and actions, they invite help to stay alive. safeTALK-trained helpers can recognise these invitations and take action by connecting them with life-saving intervention resources, such as caregivers trained in ASIST.

VERONICA ARENARIA

This outstanding plant some call it a shrub is a lifelong member of the wildflower club.

*Emerald green leaves abundant flowers vibrant blue,
They last for three-months, maybe its two.*

They can live in the shade but prefer lots of sun every wildflower garden should have at least one.

Up to one metre wide a bit over 50 centimetres high, it'll happily grow under gums and most pests it does defy.

*I have a couple in full midday sun that cop a beating off the wind from the west
If I gave them a windbreak they'd think it a lot more fun but so far they're passing the test.*

*They handle a frost also a drought and regenerate
after a fire,
if you fall on the branches it wont make you shout
it could be a great Plant for hire.*

Bowls Notes

What a glorious spectacle was the staging of the Northern District Playing Area first and second Semi-finals played on our magnificent greens! The whole venue looked picture perfect thanks to the contribution of so many of our members who donated significant time and effort. It was a real tribute to our town and our Club. Everything went off like clockwork – apart from the wind which caused a bit of angst for some players. It's funny how the wind upsets some players more than others (I've noticed that the winners complain less than the defeated ones).

Thank you everyone for whatever contribution you made to make the day so successful. Thanks for the people who turned up, at their most suitable time, for the working bee. Thanks to the people who provided food and those who made and plated the morning teas – they were very well received by, not only the players, but the spectator, too. Thanks to workers who moved seats and set up shade shelters. Thanks to the ditch cleaner, the window cleaner, the toilet cleaner, the cobweb removalist, the whirly grass sucker-upper, the master-board collectors and returners, the ashtray cleaner, the seat washer, the cup- holder washer, the ticket stapler, the table setter, the master-scoreboard keepers, the umpires, the Controlling Body, the Bar Attendant, the gardener, the titivator, the food wrapper, the people who donated the raffle items, the equipment putter-outers and picker- uppers, the ticket sellers, the dishes washers – the list is endless, but each and every job was appreciated, and as you can see, there were plenty of jobs to do.

Not least, and certainly never last, thanks to Bill, Joe, Carmen and Anthony for their work and skill in preparing the greens and surrounds, not just for the day but for the many days in the lead-up.

Every one of you are amazing and you should pat yourselves on the back! Well done! We may not have been skilled to play in the finals, but we were skilled in holding the event for others to participate and enjoy.

Mid-Week Results of the matches played:

Division 1: Barham, 74 defeated Kerang Golf, 47; Kerang, 62 defeated Cohuna, 51. Kerang through to Grand Final.

Division 2: Barham, 36 defeated Gunbower, 33; Leitchville, 48 defeated Kerang Golf, 21. Barham through to Grand Final.

Next week's matches: Preliminary Finals played at Cohuna Golf. Division 1: Barham v Cohuna.

Division 2: Gunbower v Leitchville.

Saturday Pennant results of Preliminary Finals:

scheduled for the early start due to the forecast heat rule. It was a good decision as the heat certainly kicked in and the accompanying wind made things tricky for the bowlers.

Division 1: Barham 77 defeated Wakool 39.

Division 2: Cohuna Golf 80 defeated Cohuna 41

Division 3: Wakool 74 defeated Cohuna 3.

The close match for the day was that between Cohuna Golf and Murray Downs in the Northern Valley Division where spectators were treated to a prolonged session of bowling due to the replaying of several ends as the contestants plied for the win. At the closure of play Cohuna Golf scraped home with a four shot victory, 73-69 and the right to play Kerang in the Grand Final.

Grand Final matches for Saturday Pennant:

Division 1, 2 and 3 finals matches will be played at Kerang on Saturday 1 st March.. At this stage the weather forecast is looking promising for a milder 34° with only light winds. Good luck to the participating teams. Division 1 : Barham v Cohuna Division 2: Cohuna Golf v Kerang Golf Division 3: Wakool v Cohuna

Northern Valley Division Grand Final will also be at Kerang but played on Sunday 2nd March.

Cohuna Golf v Kerang.

Congratulations to Roma Opie and Brodie Harker who were crowned the Singles Champions for the Northern District Playing Area following the completion of the knock-out rounds on Sunday. Roma plays with our PH Mid-week Pennant team so we are especially proud of her.
