Hot Show Weekend!

With weather set to hit 37 and 39 degrees on the weekend we are in for a scorcher Cohuna Show!

There is an extensive program planned, and we hope the organisers get to follow through with the event safely.

Children under 17 have free entry, adults ticket prices are $20 and Senior/Concession tickets are $10.

It might be a great weekend to head to Cohuna regardless to take advantage of cooling off at the Gunbower Creek foreshore as both the Cohuna and Pyramid Pools have already closed for the season.

Inside: GMW Duck Hunting & Payment Assistance, Pyramid Press Survey, Sylvaterre Nursery feature plant, Barista & Farm Chem Courses, Justice of Peace dates

Coordinator Catch Up

Hi Neighbours!

I got into work on Tuesday after my birthday long weekend, and there was a gift bag, a cake and a card with about 35 messages from lovely local friends all across Pyramid. Thank you so very much guys! I can't begin to tell you how touched I was to receive such a lovely lot of messages. Thanks to Lizzie for organising it all. What a treasure she is!

OK, now that I have told you how much you mean to me.. I need to tell you I am taking a little break from Pyramid Hill for two weeks. Lizzie and our volunteers will keep you all happy and connected until April, I am sure!

DON'T WAIT to book in for the courses we have coming up though! Book in nice and early so we have the numbers to get them to run.. but having said that.. the Ag Chemicals one got booked out last time we ran it in 2023, so make sure you don't miss out on a place.

For those of you who missed it, we have Mosaics coming back in MAY, with a one day and two day option. One day for beginners and two days for a more complex project [Marree Vinnecombe I am looking at you!] See you soon, Kim

Payment assistance available to irrigators

With the recent dry weather and cost of living increases, Goulburn-Murray Water (GMW) is providing its customers with a range of financial support options. These can include payment extensions and flexible payment plans.

Irrigators are being encouraged to use the financial support options available to them. GMW Business and Finance General Manager Michael Gomez said it was always better for customers to use these support options sooner rather than later.

“The past 12 months have been very dry, which has a big impact on a lot of our customers,” he said.

“We have several different financial support options available to people and are eager to work with anyone who is struggling to find the option that is best for them.”

In February, reminder notices were sent to customers who were still yet to pay their fixed charge accounts, due in December 2024.

Mr Gomez encouraged customers who were still struggling to pay these bills to contact GMW.

“We have the support options available to help people, but we need them to reach out to us so that we can provide that support,” he said.

People can learn more about GMW’s payment support procedures, by visiting the GMW website: www.g-mwater.com.au/payment-assistance

Customers can also phone GMW’s Contact Centre on 1800 013 357 for more information or to set up a payment plan.

Duck hunters encouraged to plan ahead

With duck hunting season approaching, people are being encouraged to familiarise themselves with the rules for hunting at Goulburn-Murray Water (GMW) lakes, dams and reservoirs.

The Victorian Government has announced the 2025 duck hunting season will run from 19 March to 9 June.

Duck hunting is permitted at the following GMW storages: Cairn Curran Reservoir, Hume Reservoir (Victorian lakebed areas), Tullaroop Reservoir, Lake Eppalock, Laanecoorie Reservoir, Greens Lake, Lake Eildon, Lake Buffalo, Waranga Basin, Lake Charm, Kangaroo Lake, Racecourse, Lake Nillahcootie, and Lake Nagambie.

GMW Water Storage Services general manager Leonie Bourke said people visiting GMW storages during this time should be aware of where they can and can't hunt.

"Duck hunting is permitted at several of our lakes, dams and reservoirs, but there are still parts of these storages where hunting is prohibited," she said.

"It is important people learn which areas hunting is allowed in before they visit, as some of these areas have changed since previous seasons.

"Hunters will also need to get landholder consent to hunt or pass through private property that adjoins GMW land, waterways, and storages."

Duck hunters visiting GMW-managed storages must follow the arrangements laid out by the Victorian Government. This includes bag limits, what hours of the day hunting can occur, which species can be hunted and wetland management actions.

"We ask everyone who visits our storages makes safety a priority, and respects both the environment and other members of the public," Ms Bourke said.

"If people have any questions about where they can hunt at our storages can phone us to get clarification."

Information on duck hunting at GMW storages, including maps specifying where duck hunting is permitted, can be found on the GMW website: www.gmwater.com.au/duckhunting

Details on the arrangements for the 2025 duck hunting season can be found on the Game Management Authority website: www.gma.vic.gov.au/hunting/duck/duck-season-arrangements

Hunters are reminded to regularly check the GMA website for updates on wetland management actions, including any wetlands that may be closed to hunting to protect significant concentrations of rare or threatened species.

People with further questions on where they can hunt at GMW storages can phone GMW on 1800 013 357.

PYRAMID PRESS 2025 SURVEY

We are looking at new ways to deliver the Pyramid Press.

When The Press began in the 1980's it was written and managed out of the College, and was pretty much the only way of getting information out to the Pyramid Hill masses. Now in 2025 we chat via social media, and we also have the Loddon Herald covering our weekly issues.

We know that the Press is loved, and distributed to hundreds of readers every week via paper or through our website. We are not proposing to end the Press, however we would like to get an idea of what it is YOU value, and whether we can make some changes to make it even better.

Did you know you can subscribe to the Pyramid Press and receive it straight to your email inbox?
