● PHC Bendigo Excursion

Primary students from Pyramid Hill College had a fun day out on June 13. They went to the Capital Theatre in Bendigo to watch IMAGINE LIVE by Joylon James, based on the book by Alison Lester. The show was fun, magical and full of music. The performers brought the story to life and kept everyone engaged. Students loved how the performers brought the story to life.

In the afternoon, students visited the Science Discovery Centre which proved to be a favourite for many. The planetarium was awesome, packed with fascinating information that sparked their curiosity. The excitement peaked when students dared to plunge down the vertical slide.

Different hands-on activities in the Science Centre kept everyone engaged and excited. It was truly a day filled with joy, learning and discovery.

Netball

Pyramid V's Newbridge Round 10 Saturday June 14th 2025

Mikayla Gibson received the "Good Sports Award" Congratulations Mikayla you played well in WD, with great defensive pressure and communication with team mates, always there as a back up for the next pass, and to support the team. Well done Mikayla! We would like to Thank Amber Dingwall for all her effort in organising the Games Night on Saturday, to the Footballers and Netballers and club members who were a part of the night, who played Thank you, to the Families that stayed to help out in the Kitchen and to everyone that made Casseroles. Thank you also to Alina Gould who helped run the Kids Games on the night. Congratulations to Mitch and Sean, and Blake and Harry who were Winners on the night! Please support these Club Functions.

13 & Under- Coming into a tough game on a cold morning against Newbridge, top of the table the girls played a great game. Great passages of play throughout the game. Unfortunately going down in the end. Best on Awards: Pyramid Hill Store Award: Shylah Whittle. Coffee Bank Pyramid Hill Award: Aria Whittle. Final Score- Pyramid Hill 8 Newbridge 37.

15 & Under- The girls had a fantastic game with strong defence, excellent shooting, great moving on court and improved passing. Some tough competition throughout the game, but we adapted well. Good job girls. Best on Awards: Graeme Hayes Real Estate Award: Jamison Walters. Michell Wool Award: Siri Harrison. Final Score: Pyramid Hill 38 Newbridge 15.

17 & Under- Lack of warmth made both sides struggle with handling. Pyramid started slightly stronger of the two, up by a handful of goals at quarter time. Quarter 2 & 3 were evenly matched. Pyramid found form in the 4th Quarter to outscore Newbridge. A low scoring patchy game all round. Eloise Walters was the player who found most form, well played. Congratulations Ellesha on playing shooter and defence positions, and giving it your all. Best on Awards: Graeme Hayes Real Estate Award: Ellesha Fergusson. Pyramid Hill News and Post Award: Eloise Walters. Final Score: Pyramid Hill 26 Newbridge 13.

B Reserve- It was a cold start and it did take us some time to warm up! Newbridge started well dominating play and goaling accurately from the onset. We worked hard to claw our way back with Chels and BJ patiently working the ball into our ring for Jess and Claire to finish off with some nice goals to lead 13-12 at QTR time. The lead began to change as Newbridge goalers continued their long range accuracy despite strong efforts from Kelly and Erin in the ring. Mik W set up some good plays in the ring and combined well with both Claire and Jess. BJ didn't stop running all day as highlights came from Erin from her down court intercepts which kept us in the game. Kelly rebounded well when given the opportunity, and Mik G worked hard all game defensively. A few momentum swings in the final quarter, ultimately going down 49-45. Best on Awards: National Hotel Award: Erin Farrar. "Good Sports Award": Mikayla Gibson. Final Score: Pyramid Hill 45 Newbridge 49.

B Grade- We hit the court firing in B Grade from the first whistle however we weren't able to maintain the fire until the end. Some brilliant defence from Pyramid made it difficult for the newbridge goalers. Great running all day and some brilliant passages of play. Lots to work on and get us in primed for a successful final series. We can only benefit from days like today. Best on Emily Prout who was consistent in the midcourt. Best on Award: Victoria Hotel Award: Emily Prout. Final Score: Pyramid Hill 32 Newbridge 44.

A Reserve- The day started with a chilly one the girls came out strong in the cold conditions. Aleesha and Julia in defence kept Newbridge low scoring. The girls had a hard fight in attack being out reached Mik shot like a champ and the mid court worked there guts out for turn overs and intercepts. Unfortunately, Newbridge pipped us at the post by 2. Best on Award: National Hotel Award: Aleesha Flanagan. Final Score: Pyramid Hill 34 Newbridge 36.

A Grade- We welcomed Dot for her first A grade game this season and it was a tough game to start with against the 3rd placed Newbridge. As we expected, Newbridge started well with some solid play and accurate goaling to have the edge at quarter time. Our defenders started to combine well and give us some opportunities and we were able to get ahead to have a 5 goal lead going in to the last quarter. Newbridge came at us hard but we were happy to hold on by 2. Best on Award: Victoria Hotel Award: Morgan Dingwall. Final Score: Pyramid Hill 42 Newbridge 40.

Football Notes

Successive Saturdays saw true winter conditions; near freezing with a breeze, and for Newbridge there was some early fog thrown in for good measure. Luckily the Under 18's had the day off but it was great to see a number of them either playing Reserves footy, running water or helping out their mates in other Leagues. Well done boys.

The 'Dogs Reserves started well but had trouble finding the big sticks, with no goals to show for 5 scoring shots and trailing at the first break. It turned around in the second term with 4 goals to none and a 20-point buffer had been established at the main break.

Plenty of possessions and run off halfback by Glen James (Pony Award) provided the impetus, and by the final hooter a dozen goals was the result and a 50+ point margin in place. Throughout the contest Dylan Lovell (National Hotel) performed at his usual high level, with telling mid-field possessions and penetrating kicks into the forward arc. Paddy Monaghan (Victoria Hotel and 3 goals) backed up his great game from the previous week with another influential effort in the corridor, and with Brad Delamere (Good Sports Award) providing rebound across halfback it meant that in the second half the Bulldogs scored more than in the first. Eight goalkickers was a good way to share the load, and with top supporting efforts from Reece Mitchell, Brad Moon, Lucas Walker and Ross James, it meant the 'Dogs had recorded 3 in a row for the first time this season.

The Senior game opened with plenty of run and carry by both teams, and after some handy efforts by both teams the Bulldogs lead by 5 goals to 2 at the change. The second term saw the Bulldogs turn on one of their best terms for the season, with 10 goals the result. The non-stop swarming and efforts at the contest gave the forwards ample opportunities, with Ben Bisset (Victoria Hotel and 8 goals) marking on the lead, overhead and at ground level to reward the service and delivery from upfield. Livewire duo Zach Alford (4 goals) and Benny Knight (3 goals) made sure the ball was locked in the forward zone as well as they also kept the flag wavers busy. Kai Daniels, (National Hotel) maintaining his excellent output at the stoppages, gave Mitch and Steven Gunther, Levi Moss plenty of looks, whilst Daniel Frame and Gav James mopped anything that spilled loose across halfback. It was a result that ticked off a number of key points; spread of goalkickers, quarters won and great defensive efforts.

Well done to the Social Committee for organising a great Family Games Night after the match and for those who supported the activity. Keep in mind the Victoria Hotel is the venue after today's game. We have the Goods and Services, Club Reunion and Sponsors Day on July 5th, so catch up with David James with your donations and offers of support.

Golf News

The first round of the club's championships were held in sunny conditions on Sunday. Jarad Smith (nett 66) had an excellent round, along with Matt Scott, Jed Stewart and Wayne Maxted (all nett 71). The championships will continue on Sunday.

Nett - Jarad Smith (66), Matt Scott (71), Jed Stewart (71) and Wayne Maxted (71).

Pyramid Hill Park Run

On Saturday 14 June, the Pyramid Hill Golf Trail parkrun was blanketed in thick fog and brisk temperatures, but that didn't deter a strong field of 21 participants (and plenty of volunteers) from tackling the 5km course. It was great to have Michael Carroll leave the sunshine of Brisbane to join us this week. This means that two of the Carroll brothers have completed the course, with another 3 brothers to do so in due course. The big question is - who has the better completion time - Paul or younger brother Mick?

Taking top honours was Kobe Pryde of Shepparton, competing in the 11-14 junior category, with a brilliant time of 21:29. It was a proud morning for the Pryde family, with Robert and Terry also making the top 10.

Other notable finishes included:

Greg Leslie (VM55-59) – 3rd in 25:38

Youngster Mason Ivory (JM10) – 4th in 27:44

Kathleen Wallington (VW55-59) – 1st female in 29:42

Robyn Leslie and the Dehne family also completed their first parkrun at Pyramid Hill.

The event continues to attract visitors and locals alike, proving that even winter fog can't dampen the community's spirit.

The free weekly run kicks off every Saturday at 8am from the golf club, and volunteers are always welcome.
