Coloured Everlastings - Xerochrysum bracteatum

Exactly the same species as the small yellow Everlasting daisy in Terrick Terrick National Park but the flowers on these coloured ones are enormous! The plant grows to about waist high and the flowers are approximately the same diameter as a 200ml drink can.

Available in Pink, Scarlet, Copper-Red and Purple-Red they flower for months and look spectacular in flower arrangements. If you prune the flower stalk 2 new stalks grow.

Due to the dry air, heat and wind at Sylvaterre the ones I planted last year have smaller leaves this year but they have the same extra-large flowers. Very wind tolerant the one in the image has a large heavy flower-head and didn't suffer in last saturdays vigorous breeze.

Frost & Drought hardy when in the ground.

VERY LIMITED STOCK: $8 in Spacesaver Pots

Will be at Bric in Boort on Saturday November 1st and at Cohuna Market on Sunday November 2nd.

Bowls Notes

It was a week of “up – down – on – off” for our bowlers facing Round Three of the competition. That’s up-down-on-off with regard to the bowls, not the attire – up-down-on-off clothing would be enough to scare the ghouls and ghosts out of their rickety lodgings! It was, after all, the lead up to Halloween and all the spiritual fantasy attached to that event with its trickery and witchcraft.

Mid-Week Pennant

Blue Team led the way with their on-off antics at Kerang. After making the journey northward, their match was impacted by a steady downpour and play was abandoned, with both teams sharing the points. They were able to make an early exit and avoid the wicked winds which blew up later in the day.

Red Team vying against Kerang Golf got more into the up-down-on-off rhythm. They started play on time, were forced into a rain break at 9:45, which turned into an early morning tea break. After forty minutes back onto the greens they went, then off again for another brief stoppage, and then on again to compete the required 21 ends with moderate gales impacting the bowls and unbalancing bowlers on the mat. Was it worth the effort??? Well, the Red Team did manage to win a few points for their Premiership run, albeit not as many points as a wash-out would have given them. Jan’s rink comprising Joe, Kate and Rose had the hex put upon them after the break which caused them to have a massive stumble towards the latter stages of their match. Until the 15th end they were well and truly holding their own, and although scoring was tight, they were keeping their noses in front. Then the hocus pocus magic spell took all the bowls to the favour of Kerang Golf. In the process of four consecutive ends, the baddies stole eighteen shots, including two sets of six. It was definitely a case of the spooks and the shivers. Regaining their focus they managed to win the last two ends but it was too little too late enabling the witches of the North to ride homeward cackling mercilessly with a 17-30 win under their black hats. On the other hand, the rink with Marie N., Carmen, Ian and Bill served up a steady dose of swirling, steaming brew by remaining attentive and calm, slowly but surely edging in front of their opponents and never wavering from their task at hand. They only allowed the Kerang Golfers to score minimum numbers on their total of eight ends won. The highlight of the match was an up-shot played by Carmen on the 19th end. With the bowls in the head looking ominously in favour of KG (two of the opposition bowls nestling close to the jack with three of our PH bowls directly to the right in a little cluster of their own). Down came Carmen’s bowl with that extra bit of weight, connecting sweetly and puurrfectly with the two KG bowls and shooting the jack across to join the PH cluster. Are there enough superlatives to describe the shot???!! Probably not – amazing, fantastic, mind blowing, miraculous, astounding, remarkable, incredible go somewhat close. Whatever – it was a jolly great shot and had everyone gasping in wonder and disbelief. With the Skip adding another shot to the pile, what looked like a jeopardizing 2 shot deficit turned into a four shot advantage and assisted the PH team gaining a 21-12 victory. That score was sufficient to earn them the Freddo Frog Award, but not sufficient to win the whole match. Kerang Golf claimed the major prize with a tally of 42 to 38 – obviously there was a mishap with the combination of ingredients in the potion, full of tricks and not enough treats.

Saturday Pennant

Fortunately, the weather had settled by the time we went to play our Round Three matches on Saturday; and the rain held off until the evening by which time we were all done and dusted.

However, it is difficult to identify which elements impacted the match played by Division 3 at Cohuna. Apparently not much worked in the way of our players who must have been comprehensibly under some thaumaturgic spell - the scores revealed that they were definitely jinxed. The team with Greg, Mari, Anthony and Jasmine showed some resistance to the sorcery, but even they gave their opponents a 1-14 shot lead over eight ends before they managed to total a few ends of their own. They drew on their own supernatural powers to win a few of the last ends allowing them a close-to-respectable 12-26 defeat. Tony, playing with Maurie, Ray and George had a less enchanted match. They started strongly but, during the twenty-one ends played, the wizardry of cursed numbers locked them into long stints of scores at 5 (for 8 ends) and 10 (for 6 ends). They were stalled like zombies. Due to these poltergeist moments they finished 13-32 in arrears. Alas and alack there is even worse news to come! Joe playing with Bill, Amy and Michael suffered the full force of a nightmarish macabre attack. There was more “hubble bubble toil and trouble” in the cauldron than they could cope with. Scoring just single shots on four ends for the entire match left them devilishly mummified. It was a ghastly other-world experience, however, they need to keep in mind that Halloween only comes once a year and that next week is another day, another time, and the Grim Reaper will be gone to rest. In a few days’ time the horror of the 96 to 29 loss will dim into oblivion – it’s one of the benefits of growing old – memory time is shortened. And the upside is, no-one was clean sheeted so no witch’s britches had to be hoisted up the flagpole.

Division 2 went to Leitchville and battled their own demons. All day it was a tight and prickly struggle as we tried to ward off the probing attacks of the Leitchville folk who were determined not to be easily disposed of. With Ian (it must be the new hat effect) and Terry in great form putting bowls in the head, Marie N. and Marie S. were able to engage in a battle of up-shots and fine drawing, as Jack-the-reaper-butcher Walters was a thorn in their sides with his spoiling great accuracy. This rink were the winners of not just the Freddo Frog Award but they were the backbone of the skeleton to get the whole side across the line as victors (22-13). Jan (Skip), Jean, Kate and Rose had a close encounter finally succumbing to the pressure on just the last few ends. It was a courageous and spirited effort but sadly disappointing to go down by just two shots 16-18, after leading the scoreboard for almost the entirety of the game. There were no long talons left attached to any gnarled fingers as the rink played with Lionel, Carmen, David and Glen came to a climatic close. They were down on the score board after conceding 5 shots on the 17th end. To manipulate an overall victory, they had to hold the course and not lose numbers big time. They had been spell bound on a score of twelve for a cursed seven ends. Glory came on the final end when they snatched two shots to make their tally 14-18 – not a win but enough to secure a side conquest. It was a spine-chilling, spooky affair that gave us a scare of forfeiting our top of the ladder status, but we came away with uplifted spirits – eventually.

Other Notes:

Mid-Week Pennant – Blue Team, the higher placed side, hosts Red Team in the Derby Match. The competition will be fierce as the battle for supremacy is staged, all playing with a home ground advantage. Roll up is due to start at 9:15am with 9:30 start. Good bowling everyone – there’s a certain win for a Pyramid Hill team in store.

Saturday Pennant –Both teams play at home. Division 2 play Cohuna Golf 3 while Division 3 play Barham 4 Please ensure that you are ready for roll-up at the designated time of 1:15pm.

Place your name on the jobs roster – those who don’t volunteer will be given a job.

Check the Sandwich Roster – we have sandwiches each home game.

Our first tournament to host is Sunday 16th November 2:30pm start

Social Event: Fish 'n Chip Night Following our matches on Saturday, we have the opportunity to engage in some good social interaction since both sides play at home. This week has been designated “Fish 'n Chip Night.” If you wish to stay on for early dinner please enter your order on the provided order sheet, and arrangements will be made for the delivery of your tucker around 6:00pm. Friends and/or spouses are welcome to join us.

It would be convenient if you could tender close to the exact cost of your order as payment will be made through the Club Bar. As well, the “Winner takes Half” card game will be conducted, so bringing a bit of extra cash in your pocket might be something to consider.

A brighter note: Don't bother inviting the Invisible Man to your Halloween party. He won't show up. Sometimes he makes excuses, but they're all transparent.

UNLEADED PETROL

As from July 1, unleaded petrol should be available on sale in most Australian retail petrol outlets. Cars specifically made to run on unleaded petrol only will not become available until later this year, but many existing cars will be able to perform well using unleaded petrol.

An unleaded petrol tank has been installed at W and H Schmidt's Fuel Depot by Riley's Petroleum Services. The tank is 3.1m long and 1.5m wide and has a capacity to hold 1000 gallons (4500 litres). The tank is being installed in a hole 3.15m long 2.5m wide which will be covered immediately by 2 metres of cement.

As well, unleaded petrol is also available from Colin Hill Motors where Ian Gumley will fill your tank.

Unleaded petrol is petrol that has no lead added to it. Lead is normally added to increase its octane rating. Unleaded petrol is being introduced because lead is poisonous. Vehicles are a major source of lead being discharged into the atmosphere. The amount of lead in the air in heavily trafficked areas of major cities often exceeds the level considered safe by health authorities. Using unleaded petrol will greatly reduce the lead levels.

The use of unleaded petrol will also enable other air pollution problems to be tackled more effectively eg photochemical smog.

Machines that are designed for standard petrol can use unleaded petrol. All machines manufactured after Jan 1, 1986 can use unleaded petrol -- if you have any doubt as to the suitability of unleaded petrol to your machine, check with recent newspaper advertisements or contact your local petrol merchant.

"Super" should continue until at least the late 1990's but "standard" will not be marketed after unleaded petrols become available.

With unleaded petrol, we can expect-

- a cleaner, healthier environment
- reduced costs to the community at large
- conservation of scarce fuel resources
- direct savings to the motorist, with better fuel economy and reduced vehicle maintenance costs.

STEGGALL ON MARCH

The Victorian Farmers and Graziers Association rural rally in the streets of Melbourne on June 24 has been hailed as an outstanding success by the Member for Swan Hill, Mr Barry Steggall.

Mr Steggall, who took part in the march, commented the "Fair Go" rally helped bring home to the metropolitan politicians and members of the public the concerns of rural people.

First, he said, it enabled metropolitan politicians to physically see there are a lot of people who live outside Melbourne, and secondly, it emphasised the problems and issues National Party Members has been talking about in Parliament.

"It has helped those Members of Parliament, particularly Ministers, to understand the depths of the feelings of country people," he said.

"It has also helped to put a lot of pressure on State and Federal Ministers, particularly State Ministers, who will soon have to be making decisions on the economic future of rural Victoria."

Mr Steggall said those decisions related to such areas as water charges, grain freight rates and the Public Authorities Dividend.

Instead of putting up these charges every year, he said, the Government should at least consider leaving them as they are - if not reducing them.

"We will soon see how much impact the rally had on these areas, as well as other issues such as education, hospitals and the Courts," he said. "I believe it will help all of these concerns."

Mr Steggall remarked the Government may at least now make decisions based on the concerns of the rural people, rather than worry about being seen by Melbourne people to be giving concessions to so-called wealthy farmers.

THEFT CHARGES

Four people, 2 men and 2 women, have been charged on 27 counts of theft and burglary from Euroa to Pyramidal Hill and throughout the Echuca District.

Echuca Police arrested the four after a "mere snippet of information" and a lot of leg work. Police said the thieves preyed on isolated schools and buildings which had practically no security - readers will remember last year when the H.E.S and Golf Club were "raided".

Det Sgt Morley, of Echuca C.I.B. praised the efforts of the C.I.B. the uniformed branch and the other force members who helped rope in the culprits.
